CHILDREN'S RIGHTS SERIES

AGES
4-11

12 engaging stories about rights and responsibilities

Ep 1: Let's Be Fair 7 minutes

When Vin is treated unfairly because of his beginner's English, the children learn the right to be treated fairly.

Ep 2: Listen to Me 5 minutes

Catherine finds a way to have her idea heard and learns about the right for children to be listened to by adults.

Ep 3: That's Private 4 minutes

Tom is angry when Kate reads his diary. The children learn about the right to have their privacy respected.

Ep 4: Don't Bully Me 5 minutes

Tom is bullied by Morko, but asks for help and they all learn about the right to be protected from harm.

Ep 5: Be at School 4 minutes

Kate looks after her younger brothers while her mother works, but soon learns about the right to education.

Ep 6: What's Best For Me 5 minutes

Tom is angry when his father insists he do tutoring instead of soccer, but learns that adults can decide what's best.

Ep 7: Let's Be Healthy 5 minutes

Kate sees the dentist with a bad toothache and learns about regular dental care and healthy eating.

Ep 8: My Right to a Good Home

4 minutes

Morko and his dad are struggling at home. The children learn about the right to a basic standard of living.

Ep 9: Respect My Beliefs 5 minutes

The children appreciate different cultures. Discrimination against Reema over her hijab is resolved.

Ep 10: Don't Exploit Me 4 minutes

A neighbour takes advantage of Catherine, who learns the right to be protected from exploitation.

Ep 11: Keep Me Safe 6 minutes

(Use with discretion)

When Kate tells Catherine a secret, she learns the right to be safe and sees a counsellor.

Ep 12: Know My Rights 7 minutes

Catherine tells the class about the Stolen Generations and all learn the importance of rights and responsibilities.
